

Please do not change the law. As citizens of a state we ought to be able to control unwanted telemarketing. The change seems to be simply giving in to big business at the expense of the privacy of the individual. thank you for your consideration.